Designations, Qualifications and Related Criteria

1. Chartered Financial Analyst[®] (CFA[®])

Mr. Schauer has earned the right to use the Chartered Financial Analyst[®] or CFA[®] designation from the CFA Institute, a global, not-for-profit organization of investment professionals. Candidates must have in-depth knowledge of securities types and investment vehicles, and have earned at least a bachelor’s degree from an accredited school. To earn the CFA[®] designation, Mr. Schauer, successfully passed all three exam levels (six-hour each, covering ethics, quantitative methods, economics, corporate finance, financial reporting and analysis, security analysis, and portfolio management), completed at least four years of qualified investment work experience, and became a member of the CFA Institute. To maintain the designation, he must annually renew his pledge to adhere to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct and maintain his membership in a local CFA member society. [Chartered Financial Analyst[®] and CFA[®] are trademarks owned by the CFA Institute.]

2. Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

To earn his CPA license, Mr. Schauer earned a degree in accounting, passed the CPA examination, and demonstrated qualifying work experience.

CPAs are licensed and regulated by their state boards of accountancy. While state laws and regulations vary, the education, experience and testing requirements for licensure as a CPA generally include minimum college education (typically 150 credit hours with at least a baccalaureate degree and a concentration in accounting), minimum experience levels (most states require at least one year of experience providing services that involve the use of accounting, attest, compilation, management advisory, financial advisory, tax or consulting skills, all of which must be achieved under the supervision of or verification by a CPA), and successful passage of the Uniform CPA Examination. In order to maintain a CPA license, states generally require the completion of 40 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) each year (or 80 hours over a two-year period or 120 hours over a three-year period). Additionally, all American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) members are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct which requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services. The vast majority of state boards of accountancy have adopted the AICPA's Code of Professional Conduct within their state accountancy laws or have created their own.

3. Master of Business Administration (MBA)

The MBA degree from the Western Michigan University is awarded to individuals who have successfully completed at least 36 credit hours of advanced curriculum focusing on general business management. The specialized MBA – Finance degree requires at least 9-18 hours of graduate level coursework in areas such as; corporate finance, investments, portfolio and security, or international finance. There is no maintenance requirement associated with the MBA – Finance degree such as continuing education or Code of Ethics.

ITEM 3 - DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Designations, Qualifications and Related Criteria

1. Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®) Professional Requirements

The Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. administers the certification process to individuals who are authorized to use the CFP certification marks in the U.S. CFP® Professionals must meet rigorous professional standards and agree to adhere to the principles of integrity, objectivity, competence, fairness, confidentiality, professionalism, and diligence when dealing with clients. The initial certification requirements are as follows:

Education: CFP® professionals must complete a comprehensive course of study at a college or university offering a financial planning curriculum approved by CFP Board. In addition, CFP® professionals must also hold an accredited college or university bachelor's degree or higher.

Examination: CFP® practitioners must pass a comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination that tests their ability to apply financial planning knowledge in an integrated format. The exam covers the financial planning process, tax planning, employee benefits and retirement planning, estate planning, investment management and insurance.

Experience: Prior to earning the right to use the CFP® certification marks, the CFP Board requires candidates to have at least 6,000 hours of professional experience related to the financial planning process, or 4,000 hours of apprenticeship experience that meets additional requirements.

Ethics: CFP® professionals agree to abide by a strict code of professional conduct, known as CFP Board's Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility that sets forth their ethical responsibilities to the public, clients and employers. The Standards require that CFP® professionals provide services that meet the fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients. The CFP Board also performs a background check during this process, and each candidate must disclose any investigations or legal proceedings related to their professional or business conduct.

Ongoing Certification Requirements: Once certified, CFP® professionals are required to maintain technical competence and fulfill ethical obligations. They must complete a minimum 30 hours of continuing education every two years to stay current with developments in the financial planning profession. Two of these hours must be on the CFP Board's Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct. In addition to the biennial continuing education requirement, all CFP® practitioners must voluntarily disclose any public, civil, criminal or disciplinary actions that may have been taken against them during the previous two years as part of the renewal process.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in reprimand, suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® license.

2. NAPFA Registered Financial Advisor® Requirements

Sophit has been a NAPFA Registered Financial Advisor® since 1999. All NAPFA-Registered Financial Advisors must have at least three years of comprehensive financial planning experience and have a sample comprehensive financial plan reviewed by a NAPFA-Registered Financial Advisor. Current requirements also include a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution and the Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®) certification. All NAPFA-Registered Financial Advisors must also adhere to NAPFA's Fiduciary Oath, Standards of Membership and Affiliation, and Bylaws. NAPFA Registered Financial Advisors must also complete continuing education requirements of 60 hours every two years. All NAPFA-Registered Financial Advisors provide investment and/or financial planning services on a Fee-Only basis as defined by NAPFA.
